I TRUST YOU ARE HAVING FUN USING YOUR

LEAF BLOWER

I would like to politely point out that they are

Noisier than,
More polluting than,
More expensive to buy
and to run than,
And ultimately less bloody effective than

A RAKE OR A BRUSH

But you seem to be having a terrific time moving a small quantity of plant matter a small number of feet laterally and vertically before in all likelihood using a rake and/or brush anyway to collect some arbitrary percentage of it into a bin, so never mind me.
